Providing expert cardiac care.

Cook Children's Heart Center has earned a distinguished three-star rating from The Society of Thoracic Surgeons (STS) for its patient care and outcomes in congenital heart surgery. The rating, which denotes the highest category of quality, places Cook Children's among the elite for congenital heart surgery in the United States and Canada.

Cook Children's surgeons take an individualized approach to treating complex conditions. Whenever possible, the team works to partner with leading regional hospitals like Covenant Children's allowing for more complex surgical procedures to be performed closer to home. The team also takes on cases that other hospitals may shy away from treating altogether.

Bringing pediatric cardiac surgery closer to home.

Through a new partnership, Cook Children's and Covenant Children's are providing expert care for the children of West Texas and New Mexico with congenital heart defects.

From the simple to the rarest and most complex condition, Cook Children's and Covenant Children's are working together to diagnose and treat patients, keeping them as close to home as possible.

Cook Children's cardiothoracic surgical team will join the Covenant Children's team in Lubbock on a regular basis to perform heart surgeries.

Cook Children's Heart Center's team features more than 30 cardiologists, cardiothoracic surgeons, cardiac intensivists and cardiac anesthesiologists, and provides patient families with more than 400 years of total experience.

Covenant Children's is the largest free-standing children's hospital in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico, offering a wide range of pediatric specialty and sub-specialty care to the region.
